

LEMON-WINE PASTA WITH SHRIMP

- 16 oz. Fettuccini
- 1 lb. Shrimp, fresh or frozen, peeled & deveined
- 2 T. Olive oil
- 1 T. Butter
- ¼ C. Minced onions
- 1 Clove garlic, minced
- 3 T. White flour
- 2 C. Chicken broth
- 2 C. Dry white wine
- 1 T. Dijon mustard
- 1 t. Lemon zest
- ½ t. Thyme, dried
- 1 t. Dill, dried
- Salt and pepper to taste

Cook the pasta according to package directions. Two minutes before it's done, toss in the shrimp. Drain.

Meanwhile, put the wine and chicken broth together into one measuring cup. Heat the olive oil and butter over medium heat. Add the onion and garlic and sauté until the onion is translucent, stirring constantly. Reduce heat to low. Add the flour one tablespoon at a time, stirring well each time. Gradually add the wine/broth mixture, stirring well after each addition. Bring the mixture to a boil, lower heat, and then simmer for ten minutes. Gently stir in the mustard, lemon zest, and herbs. Put the pasta, shrimp, and sauce in one large serving bowl and toss with salt and pepper. Serve with lemon wedges and the wine you used for cooking.

Fool's Gold is the Land of Happy Endings

Perfection is in the eye of the beholder

Welcome to Fool's Gold, California, a charming community in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada. There's lots to do and plenty of people to meet, especially women. Because there's just one tiny problem in Fool's Gold: the men don't seem to stick around. Maybe it's the lure of big-city life, or maybe it's plain old bad luck, but regardless of the reason, the problem has to be fixed, fast. And Charity Jones may be just the city planner to do it.

Charity's nomadic childhood has left her itching to settle down, and she immediately falls in love with all the storybook town has to offer—everything, that is, except its sexiest and most famous resident, former world-class cyclist Josh Golden. With her long list of romantic disasters, she's not about to take a chance on another bad boy, even if everyone else thinks he's perfect just the way he is. But maybe that's just what he needs—someone who knows the value of his flaws. Someone who knows that he's just chasing perfect.
